

A must on Wednesday ... only in the GDN with STEPHANIE SUTCLIFFE

LeisureScene

Email: leisure@gdn.com.bh

Your weekly entertainment guide

Follow us on Twitter: @GDNleisure

Carnatic vocalist in concert

CARNATIC vocalist Sanjay Subrahmanyam is set to perform in Bahrain next month. The first Indian classical vocalist to be invited to perform in the prestigious Theatre De La Ville, Paris in 1999, Mr Subrahmanyam has since performed there three more times to sell-out crowds. And on March 5, he will take to the stage at the Bahrain Society of Engineers hall in Juffair for his very first concert in Bahrain. Mr Subrahmanyam is one of the most sought-after Carnatic vocal artists, who has built a vast repertoire in all compositional forms of the art over the years, covering all four southern dialects and spanning modern and period composers. For tickets and more information call 36684011 or 36619004.

■ Subrahmanyam ... vocalist

DJ JustKott to rock fans at Bushido

PARTYGOERS can look forward to Bushido's Colourama event later this month, featuring DJ JustKott.

On February 27, the popular venue will boast a Latino flavour as DJ JustKott gets behind the decks to keep those party feet dancing all night long.

DJ JustKott has performed all around the world, from Los Angeles to Tokyo and many major cities in between, performing with the likes of Ricky Martin.

Resident DJ Albert-L will be warming up the evening with his eclectic mix of electro, Latino and world music beats.

Don't forget to dress to impress.

Call 17583555 for further information.

Club to host music night

AN evening of music has been organised by Kannada Sangha Bahrain tomorrow at the Indian Club in Gudaibiya from 8.30pm.

Set to feature emotionally-charged romantic Kannada film songs sung by members, the event will also feature popular amateur singer Amarnath Rai as group leader accompanied by a live orchestra.

Vijaya Satyanarayana will also perform as a guest.

Call 17253157 for more information.

Bands to perform at Brazil Lounge

■ Local band Black Lime

■ Glam rock punk band Hot Laser

COMPLETE your weekend with Brazil Rocks at Brazil Lounge in Adliya on Saturday.

Popular local bands Metaholic, MUST, Hot Laser and Black Lime are all set to perform on the evening.

Metaholic is currently celebrating the release of their latest video Cremation and Glam rock punk band Hot Laser will be performing their debut single Narcissism.

Partygoers can also look forward to a range of original hard rock songs from MUST's upcoming album and Black Lime will finish off the event with a selection of well-known rock covers.

Call 36161650 for more information on the event.

Celebrate Chinese, Korean New Year at Meisei

CELEBRATE the Chinese and Korean New Year at Meisei in Adliya tomorrow night with their festival of lights.

A beautiful display of ecofriendly paper lanterns will be released from the rooftop to light up the night sky, while the first 20 ladies to arrive at Meisei will receive a surprise gift. Call 17007770 to know more on the event.

■ A scene from the film

A treat for opera fans

OPERA lovers are in for a treat at La Fontaine Centre of Contemporary Arts on Sunday when a movie night will be held.

The 1979 French-Italian film Don Giovanni, based loosely on Mozart's classic opera of the same name, will be followed by dinner in the courtyard next to the fountain.

The well-acclaimed film is a turbulent comedy of disguise and masquerade about Don Juan, who boasts of his conquest of 2,073 women.

For more information on the event, call 17230123 or visit www.lafontaineartcentre.net.

Amateur comedians join radio host in rare show

RADIO Bahrain's breakfast show host Imran Al Aradi is set to host another of his popular 'Open Mic Comedy Nights' next month.

On March 6, he will be presenting a selection of Bahrain's finest amateur comedians at the Polo Gastropub located in the Palace Hotel in Adliya, giving them the opportunity to practise their stand-up and showcase their talents to an audience. For those who would like to participate, there are a few slots still available for sets of five to seven minutes.

Contact Imran on Facebook.com/Imran-Comedy to register.

All participants must be over 18.

■ Al Aradi on stage ... ready to tickle funny bone